13. Information and consent for the processing of personal data.

The ATTICA BOTANICAL PARK hereby informs you that it collects, processes, and stores the personal data listed on this Registration Form (child's name and surname, mother's name and surname, father's name and surname, child's date of birth, school grade completed, home address, place of residence, mother's mobile phone number, father's mobile phone number, home phone number, work phone number, other phone number, contact e-mail, child's health data, statistical data) regarding the activities program, and, upon case, any required payment details, in accordance with the provisions of the existing personal data legislation, namely Law 2472/1997, Law 4624/2019, and Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and Council ("General Data Protection Regulation"), as in force (hereinafter "Personal Data Legislation"), and in accordance with the specific terms and conditions listed below:

THE ATTICA BOTANICAL PARK collects the above personal data from you exclusively for the purpose of ensuring the smooth operation of the Easter Camp, the fulfilling of the contract between us and the protection of the security and health of the children participating in it. The legal basis for the above processing is, on the one hand, your written consent granted herein, and on the other hand, the fact that the processing of the above personal data is necessary for the performance of the contract between us.

Regarding especially the parents' personal data contained in this document, the legal basis for the processing is, in addition to the written consent granted via the present by the one parent, to ensure the ATTICA BOTANICAL PARK's legitimate interest to communicate with the parents on matters concerning the child. Especially for the health data, the legal basis for the processing is, on the one hand, your written consent granted herein, and on the other hand, the fact that the processing is necessary for the purpose of providing medical assistance to the child, should it be required. The above personal data will not be transferred to any third party without your prior written consent. Furthermore, the ATTICA BOTANICAL PARK will not transfer the above personal data to any country outside the EU.

The above personal data will be made accessible and will be processed by authorized employees at the ATTICA BOTANICAL PARK, who will process them exclusively for the fulfillment of the above purposes and under no circumstances for personal interest. Furthermore, some of the above personal data will be made accessible and will be processed, within the scope of their responsibilities, by external collaborators, and specifically by an external accountant and a cooperating insurance company (specifically, there will be provided: name and surname, father's name, and date of birth for the personal accident insurance contract. Personal health information for each participating child is explicitly excluded from the transfer), for the purpose of fulfilling our contract.

The ATTICA BOTANICAL PARK will retain and process the above personal data for as long as required to serve the aforementioned purposes of processing, as well as for as long as necessary to comply with its legal obligations and to defend itself against any legal claims. After the completion of the above-mentioned time period, it will proceed with the permanent deletion of the above personal data.

Subject to certain exceptions, terms, and limitations provided for in the Personal Data Legislation, you may exercise the right to access, correction, limitation of processing, objection, deletion of the above personal data, as well as the right to data portability. In the event of exercising any of the aforementioned rights, the ATTICA BOTANICAL PARK will take any feasible measure to fulfill your request in a timely manner, as specifically outlined and under the conditions of the Personal Data Legislation, informing you in writing on the fulfillment of your request, or on the reasons preventing you from exercising or fulfilling one or more of the aforementioned rights in accordance with the Personal Data Legislation.

In addition, you reserve the right to withdraw the present consent at any time, without this affecting the legality of the processing based on the present consent before its withdrawal. We inform you that, in the event of withdrawing your consent, we will not be eligible to use the above personal data, and the participation of your child in the Easter Camp will not be feasible. Furthermore, you have the right to file a complaint with the Personal Data Protection Authority if you consider that the processing of your personal data is not compliant with the applicable legislation.

If you have any questions regarding the protection of your personal data or you wish to exercise your legal rights, please contact the ATTICA BOTANICAL PARK using the following contact details: 2161009966 (Monday-Friday, 9:00-16:00), 177 Lavriou Avenue, 19400 Koropi.

I have been informed about the above processing of my personal data and my child's personal data, and I render my explicit and unconditional consent, both individually and as the legal guardian of _____ (name and surname of the child), to their processing, as specifically stated in this document.
