BOTANICAL PARK

The Camp's philosophy

At the Summer Camp of the Attica Botanical Park, our focus is on building strong, meaningful relationships with each child and their family.

Every member of our team is dedicated to fostering a warm, welcoming, and nurturing environment where everyone feels accepted, safe and valued.

Connecting with nature

At the Attica Botanical Park, we embrace the concept of biophilia, strengthening the hands-on connection between children and the natural environment. Through nature walks, observations, gardening tasks, insect hunts, and games with natural materials, we offer children an immersive experience that brings them closer to nature, even within the urban setting.

Camp life

The connection between children and nature is fundamental. At the Summer Camp, children experience a unique camping adventure, setting up their own tents amidst nature. Their free time takes on a new dimension as they relax, play, and engage in specially designed activities that help them explore the surrounding environment.
